Weſtminſter, December 13.

THIS Da, His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HAVING judged it neceſſary to embody a Part of the Militia of this Kingdom, I have, in purſuance of the Proviſions of the Law, called you together within the Time limited for that Purpoſe; and it is, on every Account, a great Satisfaction to Me to meet you in Parliament at this Conjuncture.

I ſhould have been happy if I could have announced to you the ſecure and undiſturbed Continuance of all the Bleſſings which My Subjects have derived from a State of Tranquillity; but Events have recently occurred which require Our united Vigilance and Exertion in order to preſerve the Advantages which We have hitherto enjoyed.

The ſeditious Practices, which had been in a great Meaſure checked by your firm and explicit Declaration in the laſt Seſſion, and by the general Concurrence of My People in the ſame Sentiments, have of late been more openly renewed, and with encreaſed Activity. A Spirit of Tumult and Diſorder (the natural Conſequence of ſuch Practices) has ſhewn itſelf in Acts of Riot and Inſurrection, which required the Interpoſition of a Military Force in Support of the Civil Magiſtrate.—The Induſtry employed to excite Diſcontent, on various Pretexts and in different Parts of the Kingdom, has appeared to proceed from a Deſign to attempt the Deſtruction of Our happy Conſtitution, and the Subverſion of all Order and Government; and this Deſign has evidently been purſued in Connection and Concert with Perſons in Foreign Countries.

I have carefully obſerved a ſtrict Neutrality in the preſent War on the Continent, and have uniformly abſtained from any Interference with reſpect to the internal Affairs of France; but it is impoſſible for Me to ſee, without the moſt ſerious Uneaſineſs, the ſtrong and increaſing Indications which have appeared there of an Intention to excite Diſturbances in other Countries, to diſregard the Rights of Neutral Nations, and to purſue Views of Conqueſt and Aggrandizement, as well as to adopt towards My Allies the States General (who have obſerved the ſame Neutrality with Myſelf) Meaſures which are neither conformable to the Law of Nations, nor to the poſitive Stipulations of exiſting Treaties. Under all theſe Circumſtances, I have felt it my indiſpenſable Duty to have Recourſe to thoſe Means of Prevention and internal Defence with which I am entruſted by Law; and I have alſo thought it right to take Steps for making ſome Augmentation of My Naval and Military Force, being perſuaded that theſe Exertions are neceſſary in the preſent State of Affairs, and are beſt calculated both to maintain internal Tranquillity, and to render a firm and temperate Conduct effectual for preſerving the Bleſſings of Peace.

Nothing will be neglected on My Part that can contribute to that important Object, conſiſtently with the Security of My Kingdoms, and with the faithful Performance of Engagements, which We are bound equally by Intereſt and Honour to fulfil.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be laid before you; and I have no Doubt that you will be ready to make a due Proviſion for the ſeveral Branches of the Public Service.

You will certainly join with Me in lamenting any Neceſſity for extraordinary Expences, which may for a Time prevent the Application of additional Sums, beyond thoſe which are already annually appropriated, to the Reduction of the Public Debt, or retard the Relief which My Subjects might have derived from a further Diminution of Taxes: But I am confident you will feel that thoſe great Ends will ultimately be beſt promoted by ſuch Exertions as are neceſſary for Our preſent and future Safety and Tranquillity; and it is a great Conſolation to Me to reflect, that you will find ample Reſources for effectually defraying the Expence of vigorous Preparations, from the Exceſs of the actual Revenue beyond the ordinary Expenditure.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have great Pleaſure in acquainting you, that the brilliant Succeſſes of the Britiſh Arms in India, under the able Conduct of the Marqueſs Cornwallis, have led to the Termination of the War by an advantageous and honourable Peace, the Terms of which are peculiarly ſatisfactory to Me, from their Tendency to ſecure the future Tranquillity of the Britiſh Dominions in that Part of the World.

Your Attention will now naturally be directed to the taking ſuch Meaſures for the future Government of thoſe valuable Poſſeſſions, as ſhall appear, from Experience and full Conſideration, moſt likely to provide for their internal Proſperity, and to ſecure the important Advantages which may be derived from thence to the Commerce and Revenue of this Country.

I am perſuaded that it will be the Object of your immediate Conſideration to adopt ſuch Meaſures as may be neceſſary, under the preſent Circumſtances, for enforcing Obedience to the Laws, and for repreſſing every Attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of theſe Kingdoms.

You will be ſenſible how much depends on the Reſult of your Deliberations; and your uniform Conduct is the beſt Pledge that nothing will be wanting on your Part which can contribute to the preſent Security and permanent Advantage of the Country.

I retain a deep and unalterable Senſe of the repeated Proofs which I have received of your cordial and affectionate Attachment to Me; and I place an entire Reliance on the Continuance of thoſe Sentiments, as well as on your firm Determination to defend and maintain that Conſtitution, which has ſo long protected the Liberties and promoted the Happineſs of every Claſs of My Subjects.

In endeavouring to preſerve and to tranſmit to Poſterity the ineſtimable Bleſſings which, under the Favour of Providence, you have yourſelves experienced, you may be aſſured of My zealous and cordial Co-operation; and Our joint Efforts will, I doubt not, be rendered completely effectual, by the decided Support of a Free and Loyal People.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For encouraging Seamen and Landmen to enter themſelves on Board His Majeſty's Ships of War.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all ſuch Seamen and Landmen who ſhall voluntarily enter themſelves in Our Service; We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publiſh this Our Royal Proclamation: And We do hereby promiſe and declare, That all ſuch Able Seamen, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who ſhall, on or before the Thirty-firſt Day of this inſtant December, voluntarily enter themſelves to ſerve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships or Veſſels, or Officers employed on Shore for raiſing Men for the Service of Our Navy, ſhall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Three Pounds each Man; and all ſuch Ordinary Seamen, fit for Our Service, who ſhall ſo enter themſelves as aforeſaid, ſhall receive the Sum of Two Pounds each Man; and all ſuch Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhall ſo enter themſelves as aforeſaid, ſhall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man, as Our Royal Bounty; ſuch reſpective Sums to be paid them by the reſpective Clerks of the Checque reſiding at the Ports where the Ships or Veſſels, on Board which ſuch Seamen and Landmen may be appointed to ſerve, ſhall be, immediately after the Third Muſter of ſuch Seamen and Landmen: And We do declare, That the Qualifications of the Seamen and Landmen, ſo entering themſelves, ſhall be certified by the Captain, Maſter and Boatſwain of the Ship or Veſſel on Board which they ſhall be appointed to ſerve. And for Prevention of any Abuſes by any Perſons leaving the Veſſels to which they ſhall belong, and entering themſelves on Board any other Our Ships or Veſſels, in order to obtain the ſaid Bounty Money, We do hereby declare and command, That ſuch Seamen and Landmen belonging to any of Our Ships or Veſſels, Veſſels, as ſhall abſent themſelves from any of the ſaid Ships or Veſſels to which they ſhall belong, and ſhall enter themſelves on Board any other of Our ſaid Ships or Veſſels, in order to obtain the ſaid Bounty, ſhall not only loſe the Wages due to them in the Ships or Veſſels they ſhall leave, but alſo be puniſhed according to their Demerits.

Given at Our Court at Windſor, the Firſt Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, and in the Thirty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Bailiffs and Common-Council of the Town of Liverpool, has been preſented to the King by Owen Salisbury Brereton, their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of Liverpool, in Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

OBſerving by your Majeſty's late Proclamation, "that the utmoſt Induſtry is employed by evil-"diſpoſed Perſons within this Kingdom, acting in Concert with Perſons of Foreign Parts," we beg Leave to repreſent to your Majeſty the Abhorrence with which we regard, and are determined to reſiſt, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, all Attempts that are ſo obviouſly and vitally repugnant to every Principle of Reaſon, Gratitude and Duty.

We lament, with the moſt ſincere Concern, that the Time ſhould ever have arrived when it ſeems no longer ſuperfluous in us to expreſs, as we now do, the firm Allegiance which we bear to your Majeſty's Perſon, and our unſhaken Attachment to our invaluable Conſtitution.

We are happy, however, to aſſure your Majeſty, at any other Juncture, we ſhould have confidently perſuaded ourſelves that it could only be a moſt inconſiderable Number of our Countrymen, who could prove themſelves ſo unable to comprehend their beſt Intereſts, or ſo unwilling to reverence their firſt Obligations, as deliberately to form a Plan, or entertain a Wiſh, either to overturn or to injure the admirable Syſtem of our Government. At the ſame Time, the Meaſures which your Majeſty has taken to conſult the Welfare of your Subjects, demand and receive our moſt grateful and loyal Thanks; and we reſt ſatisfied that, for any Evils which may have been either diſcovered or apprehended by your Majeſty in your Anxiety and Attention to the Happineſs of your People, an adequate and timely Remedy will be found in the enlightened Wiſdom of Parliament, and in that rational Loyalty, and that diſcriminating and virtuous Attachment to the Principles of the Conſtitution, which we are happy to believe will, and we ardently pray may, ever inſpire the Wiſhes, and direct the Exertions of the Inhabitants of theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventh Day of December, 1792.

Fully perſuaded that the great National Bleſſings we enjoy can only be continued (as well to the lower as higher Ranks of Society) by a due Subjection to the Laws, and a temperate Uſe of our Privileges as a free People;

We are anxious to avow our firm Determination to ſupport the legal Government of this Realm, and to promote, by our utmoſt Exertions, Tranquillity and good Order.

DOWGATE WARD.

AT a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Ward of Dowgate, convened in purſuance of a Public Notice, at Tallow-Chandlers-Hall, on Monday the 10th of December, 1792,

PAUL LE MESURIER, Eſq; and Alderman of the ſaid Ward, in the Chair,

The following Declaration was read, viz.

We the Alderman, Deputy, Common-Council and Inhabitants of the Ward of Dowgate, feel it our Duty, at the preſent Criſis, to declare our Loyalty to our Gracious Sovereign, and our Love and Attachment to our moſt excellent Conſtitution, both in Church and State, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

We acknowledge, with heartfelt Gratitude, the many Bleſſings we enjoy in this our free and happy Country; and, conſcious that, next to Divine Providence, they are to be attributed to the mild and equitable Government under which we live, to the Wiſdom and Vigour of Parliament, conſiſting of King, Lords and Commons, and to the juſt and impartial Adminiſtration of the Law, we do pledge ourſelves to our Fellow Citizens and to our Country, that we will uſe our moſt zealous Endeavours to maintain and defend theſe invaluable Bleſſings, and that we will diſcourage and oppoſe every Attempt which ſhall be made by Levellers and other evil minded Men, to diſturb the Peace and Happineſs of this Realm, and to alienate the Minds of our Fellow Subjects from their Allegiance to the King, and that Conſtitution under which this Country has flouriſhed, and riſen to a Degree of Proſperity unknown to our Anceſtors.

Reſolved unanimouſly,

That this Meeting do approve of the foregoing Declaration, and that it be ſigned by the Gentlemen preſent, and ſuch other of the Inhabitants as approve the ſame.

Reſolved unanimouſly,

That the Deputy and Common-Council be a Committee to attend the Signing thereof.

Reſolved unanimouſly,

That theſe Reſolutions be ſigned by the Chairman, and publiſhed in ſome of the Daily Papers.

PAUL LE MESURIER, Chairman.

The Alderman having quitted the Chair, a Motion was made, and carried unanimouſly, That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to the Alderman and Common Council of this Ward, for calling them together upon this Occaſion, to teſtify their Satisfaction under the preſent Government, and their Determination to defend, to the utmoſt of their Power, the Perſon and Family of His Moſt Sacred Majeſty, His Crown, and Dignity.

And then the Meeting adjourned.

CHRIST's HOSPITAL, LONDON,

December 11, 1792.

AT a numerous Meeting of the Inhabitants of the WARD of FARRINGDON WITHIN, held this Day, to conſider on the moſt effectual Means for ſupporting our excellent Conſtitution againſt the Attempts of all thoſe who aim at it's Subverſion,

Mr. Alderman NEWMAN in the Chair,

Reſolved,

1. That at the preſent alarming Period, when dangerous Combinations are formed in different Parts of theſe Kingdoms, ſeditious Correſpondences ſedulouſly carried on, and inflammatory Publications diſſeminated with uncommon Induſtry amongſt all Ranks of People, for the evident Purpoſe of weakening that Regard which every good Subject ought to have for our excellent Conſtitution, and introducing, in it's Stead, Principles dangerous to the Peace of Society, and totally ſubverſive of that happy Form of Government, which has for Ages been the Pride and the Glory of Britons, it becomes the Duty of every Man, who has a Regard for the Welfare of his Country, to declare, in the moſt public Manner, and in Terms the moſt unequivocal, his inviolable Attachment to our happy Conſtitution, conſiſting of King, Lords and Commons, and that, to the utmoſt of his Power, he will ſupport and defend the ſame againſt all Innovation whatſoever.

2. That the Inhabitants of this Ward, having received from the Alderman, Deputy and Common Council the ſeveral Reſolutions of the Corporation of this City of the 29th of November, do expreſs their entire Approbation of the ſame, and that they will uſe their utmoſt Exertions to carry them into Effect.

3. That, truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings enjoyed under the well formed and happily poiſed Government of this Country, this Wardmote do declare, in this public Manner, their fulleſt Determination ſtrenuouſly to ſupport the ſame in all it's Three Branches; being perfectly convinced, that if Length of Time and Change of Circumſtances have occaſioned Defects, it's own Powers are fully competent to their Removal.

4. That, impreſſed with the ſtrongeſt Senſe of Loyalty to their Sovereign and Veneration for the Laws, they will (as far as they are enabled) reſiſt every Attack that may be made upon either, whether by Enemies from Abroad or by Incendiaries at Home.

5. That, to preſerve Peace and good Order, (the great Objects of all Government) it be earneſtly recommended to Victuallers of every Deſcription within this Ward not to entertain or receive into their reſpective Houſes any Club or Society of Perſons aſſembled for the avowed Purpoſe of general and open Debate, but for the more concealed one, of diſperſing ſeditious Books and Pamphlets through the Country, correſponding with ſimilar diſaffected Societies, and promoting a Spirit of Diſcontent through the People. And that it be farther recommended to the ſame Perſons not to take in thoſe Publications which are notoriouſly known to be the Vehicles of pernicious and rebellious Principles, and the Means of propagating Opinions tending to deſtroy that Senſe of Subordination, without which Civil Society cannot poſſibly exiſt.

6. That the Thanks of this Wardmote be given to Mr. Alderman Newman for his impartial Conduct in the Buſineſs of the Day.

7. That the Thanks of this Meeting be given to William Gill, Eſq; Treaſurer of this Hoſpital, for his polite Behaviour and ready Compliance in granting the Uſe of this Hall to the Inhabitants of the Ward.

8. That theſe Reſolutions be printed in the London Gazette and all the Morning Papers, ſigned by the Chairman, and that a Copy be left at the Ward Charity School, in Bull and Mouth Street, for the Signatures of the Inhabitants.

The ALDERMAN in the Chair.

WE, the Alderman, Common Council, and Inhabitants of this Diſtrict, impreſſed with a lively Senſe of Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy, under Divine Providence, from Laws formed by a Government mild, equitable and free, think it proper, at this important Criſis, to come forward, and, in Conjunction with our Fellow Citizens, to declare, in Terms unequivocal, our firm Attachment to the King, and to the Conſtitution of the Country, under it's preſent Form of King, Lords and Commons; and having too much Reaſon to believe, from ſeditious Writings and Pamphlets, which have been circulated with Induſtry through the Land, that there are evil-minded Men connected with Foreign Parts, who wiſh to diſturb the internal Peace and Tranquility of the Kingdom:

Reſolved,

1ſt. That we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, individually and collectively, firmly ſupport and defend the Conſtitution, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

2dly. 3dly. That as much Miſchief may ariſe to the Community by the Diſtribution of inflammatory Hand-Bills and Pamphlets, or by poſting on the Walls Papers ſeditiouſly written or tending to Sedition, that the Conſtables be directed to be particularly active in their Endeavours to detect ſuch Offenders within this Ward; and for the more effectual Encouragement of their Zeal, a Reward of Ten Guineas is offered, and Mr. Deputy Chapman by this Reſolution is authoriſed to pay, on the legal Conviction of every Perſon ſo offending.

4thly. That all Publicans within this Ward be careful not to encourage any Clubs or Aſſociations within their reſpective Houſes, formed on Principles ſubverſive of good Order, and tending to diſturb and interrupt the Public Peace.

5thly. That theſe Reſolutions be left for the Signature of thoſe who may approve of them, at the Hall, To-morrow and on Thurſday, from Twelve o'Clock till Three on each Day; and that the Gentlemen of the Common Council be requeſted to attend.

6thly. That Mr. Deputy Chapman be requeſted to convey the Thanks of this Meeting to the Maſter, Wardens, and Court of Aſſiſtants of the Worſhipful Company of Armourers and Braziers, for the Uſe of their Hall on this Occaſion.

7thly. That theſe Reſolutions be ſigned by the Chairman, publiſhed in the Gazette, and in all the Morning and Evening Papers, and entered alſo on the Records of this Ward.
